Please note:

- Pricing is based on 70 dancers sharing flat rate items-airfare, airport transfers, GRV transfers, hotel room where applicable. Fluctuation in dancer numbers/family member numbers may affect this cost.
- Additional Dancer costs include but are not limited to:
 - Velocity Convention - $300 USD for convention only, there will also be additional competition entry fees
 - Classes at OFFSTAGE by GRV (Approximately $60-$100/dancer)
 - Chaperone expenses

 - Agent in destination-coordination and facilitation of all travel components
- If you join the group air block, you must select either the 4- or 7-night option, no alterations to dates or flights are permitted.

- Number of days at Disneyland may be altered and will be reflected in package price TBD based on request.
- First priority is to the dancer for all components of this trip. Any remaining seats (air, transfers) and hotel rooms are on a first come basis from time 1st payment is received.
- Exchange rate will affect pricing. The quoted prices have been buffered (upwards) to allow for this. We hope for cost to be less than quoted but there are no guarantees.
- Payments can be made by e-transfer only. Details to follow. Payment schedule will be released once numbers are determined.
- Google forms due June 20th at 12:00pm sharp!
- Deposit and first payment due July 27th $250 deposit + $250 first payment =$500 per person

Cancellation Terms:

- There is a non-refundable deposit per person of $250.00 required to hold a spot.
- Cancellation and travel medical insurance options will be provided once final number of travelers is determined. It is strongly recommended that travel insurance be purchased and/or reviewed (if provided through employer).
- All travelers must respect that cancelling will affect the pricing per person as many components are at a shared flat rate, therefore, cancellation requests for personal reasons will be at the discretion of The Village Dance Academy and Oracle Travel.

Although parents are absolutely welcome, we do encourage our dancers to travel sans parents, should they feel ready to do so!

FUNDRAISING

We have had lots of interest in fundraising and would love to get the ball rolling on this sooner than later. Although VDA will not be directly involved in the fundraisers, we are happy to support by connecting parents to one another and providing studio space for you to plan and brainstorm. Please reach out if you would like to spear head the first meeting and we can figure out a good day/time!

We look forward to seeing this all come to life and having our dancers experience the incredible training at Velocity Dance Convention with a bonus Disney experience!

Thank you so much,
The VDA Team
